

Fisher's Hornpipe

The first line of music is in 4/4 time, key of D major. It begins with a repeat sign. The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes. A triplet of eighth notes is marked with a '3' above it. Below the staff is a fretboard diagram with six strings and four frets. Filled circles represent fretted notes, and open circles represent open strings. A '+' sign is placed below the first string, first fret position.

The second line of music continues the melody. It features a triplet of eighth notes marked with a '3' above it. The fretboard diagram below shows the corresponding fingerings, with '+' signs indicating the starting position for several notes.

The third line of music continues the melody. It features two triplet markings with '3' above them. The fretboard diagram below shows the corresponding fingerings, with '+' signs indicating the starting position for several notes.

The fourth line of music concludes the piece. The fretboard diagram below shows the final fingerings, with '+' signs indicating the starting position for several notes.
